WELCOME MESSAGE

Hon. Ron Redhead

I am pleased, as Minister with responsibility for Sports, to welcome you to Grenada for the second edition of the Grenada Rugby World 7s Tournament.

Sports tourism remains a key priority in our sporting and national agendas. Therefore, Grenada Rugby 7s is a welcomed addition and it is my fervent hope that it becomes a fixture on our sports-tourism calendar. I am heartened that Grenada remains the preferred destination for this tournament.

Although the sport of rugby is still new to our shores, I am encouraged by the growing interest thus far. As we endeavor, as a Ministry, to introduce and develop non-traditional sporting disciplines, I thank the organisers as well as the foundation members of the Grenada Rugby Union for this initiative as it augurs well for the development of the sport here in Grenada.

In this regard, I look forward to a world class tournament and invite you to enjoy and experience all that this beautiful and pure tri-island state has to offer. "Indulge in our mouthwatering cuisine, venture into the lush rainforest, take a dip in a waterfall pool, or simply relax at one of our many pristine beaches".

WELCOME!!

Hon. Ron Redhead
Minister W.R.F
Youth, Sports and Culture

RHYS CLEARY (WALES)

Rhys is currently living in Hampshire, representing the RFU. Rhys made the switch from the ball to the whistle in 2020. Since then, he has accelerated into the 7s scene, having completed appointments from Rosslyn Park to Los Angeles. His career highlight thus far is the Fallaze Cup, which is an annual fixture fought between Jersey and Guernsey. Rhys is looking forward to an exciting tournament and experiencing the local traditions associated with the game.

SCOTT CUBITT (SCOTLAND)

Scott has lived in Scotland his entire life. Due to injuries, he made the switch from playing rugby to the 'dark side' and started refereeing after finishing University in 2016. He refereed England vs France U18 Women's Six Nations last year, and he can now boast that he referees in the Scottish Premiership, after getting his first game the week after last year's Grenada Rugby World 7s.

BETTY DAVIS (CANADA)

Betty started refereeing in 2015 and officiated at the Grand Prize Finals in the Caribbean.

SIMEON DEWI (WALES)

Simeon is currently refereeing in Edinburgh but hails from South Wales. He is now in his sixth season (third in Scotland). He is very excited to be starting on the Scottish Transition Panel this year after a successful 22/23 season, where he refereed his first two national games and then did the 'cherry on top' – the National reserves semi-final between Herriots and Glasgow Hawks.

GORDON GALASHAN (SCOTLAND)

Gordon has had the privilege to referee in the Caribbean from the Tobago 7s in 2015, Barbados 7s, and now in the second year of the Grenada Rugby World 7s. He is a senior member of SRU National Panel in Scotland, refereeing the top domestic Premiership. His special moment refereeing to date is having been the first referee to officiate His Majesty's Royal Marines vs Gibraltar in September 2022.

CHANTEL JOHN (ST LUCIA)

Chantel's first international rugby referee game was in 2017 at the Rugby Barbados World 7s (RBW7s) as an Assistant Referee. She has also refereed games at regional Rugby America's North (RAN) tournaments and Tropical Sevens in Orlando, and has been an official at the RBW7s since 2017. She is looking forward to the Grenada Rugby World 7s (GRW7s) which she says "is always great experience with some great athletes".

REFEREE BIOGRAPHIES

THOMAS KREBS (CANADA)

'Krebsy' started refereeing in 2004 and he has officiated across Canada, USA, the Caribbean, and UK. Any match with two teams of players experiencing the game for the first time is his absolute forte!

CHRIS REID (ENGLAND)

Chris took up the whistle in 2010, when he became an unreliable player due to military deployments. Since then, he has gone from strength-to-strength as his passion for officiating grew with his confidence. He has performed his duties in England, mostly for Norfolk and Eastern Counties, but during the off-season, Chris has also refereed in the USA, Sweden, Greece, Portugal, and Germany.

MALCOLM REID (SCOTLAND)

Malcolm took up refereeing youth games six years ago and enjoyed it so much that he joined the Edinburgh Referees' Society. He has now progressed to refereeing East Level One and looks forward to progressing in the next season.

CHARLES SAMSON (SCOTLAND)

Charles started refereeing schools, youth, and university games after playing rugby at Edinburgh University. He was fast-tracked through all club levels in Scotland, club games, National League, and Premiership, and has refereed and ran touch in British and Irish cup games, U18 and U20 internationals. He then spent two years on the World 7s series and after that ran touch in URC and EPCR games before starting to TMO at URC, EPCR, and WR games.

JOHN SMITH (SCOTLAND)

John referees out of the Borders on Scottish Rugby's National Panel, regularly covering the Scottish Premiership. Highlights of his rugby career include refereeing the Melrose 7s tournament and on the main pitch at Scottish Gas Murrayfield.

KANISHA VINCENT (TRINIDAD & TOBAGO)

Kanisha is a young referee who began her refereeing career in 2022 after she retired from international rugby 7s in 2019. Since beginning her career, she has officiated at the RAN U19 and Senior Women's XVs tournament, Grenada Rugby World 7s, and Tropical 7s. This year, she refereed the U19 Men's Gold Medal match at the RAN competition and served as an Assistant Referee for the Women's Bronze Medal match at the Commonwealth Youth Games.

ELGAN WILLIAMS (WALES)

Elgan is a young referee who has been officiating at Premier and Age levels in Wales. He is fit as a fiddle, a fluent Welsh speaker, and we are told, a 'Party Animal'! Enough said.

RUGBY IN GRENADA

Did you know?

Rugby is a relatively new sport to the Spice Isle of Grenada.

In fact, it's safe to say that before 2021, any rugby activity on the island was minimal, if any.

However, over the past couple of years Grenada National 7s player and President of the newly-formed Grenada Rugby Union Carrim Browne and his team have been firmly dedicated to their mission of growing rugby in the tri-island state of Grenada, Carriacou, and Petite Martinque, and the sport is now steadily gaining momentum.

Expanding their reach ...

In late 2021, Carrim began heading up local discussions surrounding establishing a rugby union in Grenada to increase the awareness of, and interest in, rugby amongst the local population.

Grenada Rugby Union now holds training sessions once a week and encourages anyone interested to come and give the sport a try, with no experience necessary.

As support on the ground continues to grow, the Union are now also working with the Ministry of Education to introduce rugby into schools and to get young Grenadians involved in the game.

The aim is to build a solid player base and expand their reach, so that future generations to come can all enjoy the game of rugby in Grenada.

Last year, the Grenada Rugby Union made further strides forward, officially electing a Board and Administrative team:

President – Carrim Browne
Vice-President – Isaac Saavedra
Treasurer – Chad Da Silva
Secretary – Tony Villaneuve
Public Relations officers – Shakim Lord and Nigel Layne
Coach – Benjamin Hochhalter

Impressively, also in 2022, the first ever Grenadian rugby team, the 'Greenz' made their international debut at the Grenada Rugby World 7s (GRW7s) during the exhibition matches and gave many locals their first taste of the sport, injecting further enthusiasm into the ever-growing Union.

The Greenz intend to compete at this year's GRW7s and showcase just how much their hard work has paid off.

GRW7S CHARITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

Grenada Rugby World 7s (GRW7s) is again partnering with the Rotary Club of Grenada and the Grenada Golf and Country Club (GGCC) to host our annual local Charity Golf Tournament, with proceeds going to the Grenada Cancer Society.

Now in its third year, the 2023 Gavin Clark Memorial GRW7s Charity Golf Tournament is set to be held on Wednesday 29th November at the Grenada Golf and Country Club as part of this year's action-packed Official GRW7s Schedule of Events.

The event is open to participants from all over world, both golfers and non-golfers, locals and visitors, and is hosted in honor of Caribbean rugby stalwart, avid Women's rugby supporter, and keen golfer Gavin Clark, who died in 2019.

Participating in the Tournament requires a donation of US $100 per person, which includes a round of golf at the picturesque Grenada Golf Course as well as a three-course lunch. Golfers will also receive discounts on green fees and equipment rental.

We are sincerely grateful for the unwavering support received from Grenada to enable GRW7s – the longest running Club Rugby 7s tournament in the region – to continue its legacy, and this Charity Event is our way of giving something extra back to the community.

A variety of local businesses have dug deep to show their support for the Golf Tournament by donating a diverse selection of prizes for the winners and runners-up including discounted restaurant vouchers, hampers, and the trophies themselves, as well as a 'booby prize' for the last-placed team and other light-hearted awards to be shared.

Last year's event raised close to EC $5000 for the Grenada Cancer Society, and this year we aim to raise even more funds that will assist with the delivery of essential cancer care and support services to the Grenadian population.

For Charity Golf Tournament registrations, email GRW7s General Manager Brian Stollmeyer at brian.stollmeyer@gmail.com or GRW7s Event Manager George Nicholson at gnicholson@adebbarbados.com. For all GRW7s information, visit www.grw7s.com.
